Germans Continue to Retire in Champagne Sector

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Oct. 11.—French troops yesterday crossed the Aisne southeast of Laon and drove the enemy northward. The French have gained ground north of Berry au Bac and have taken prisoners, according to the official statement from the War Office. In the Champagne sector the Germans have begun to retreat toward the Aisne river. French forces have occupied the station at Grand Pre, where numerous prisoners were taken. French troops last night advanced in the region north of the Aisne, captured the towns of Chivy and Mouline and then pushed on beyond. Italian troops reached a point south of the Chemin des Dames of which highway the French have largely gained possession. In the Champagne French troops crossed the river Sulpice and gained a footing. Further east the French are pursuing the Germans who are in retreat.

SEEK TO ASCERTAIN CAUSE OF INFLUENZA

Washington, Oct. 11.—In its fight to stop the spread of Spanish influenza the Public Health Service is investigating the cause of the disease, the conditions which promote its spread and the part played in the epidemic by carriers.

It also is seeking an effective vaccine, but announcement was made tonight that the service has been unable to recommend any that it believes will be successful.

Influenza continues to spread over the country and has reached epidemic proportions in many additional cities in the west.

Conditions at Army camps today showed a slight improvement. During the 24 hours ending at noon 12,321 new cases were reported, with 2797 new cases of pneumonia and 839 deaths. The total of influenza cases reported at Army camps since the disease first appeared has now reached 211,000; pneumonia cases 26,088 and deaths 2132.

The campaign of the public health service to check the disease among the civilian population is now well under way. Nearly 250 physicians are in the field and headquarters have been organized in more than 30 cities in the Eastern and Southern States.

The Volunteer Medical Corps of the council of National Defense and the American Red Cross are actively co-operating with the service in its campaign in New England and other sections.

When a child's tongue turns white, breath feverish, stomach sour, mothers can always depend upon safe old "Cascarets" to gently, yet thoroughly clean the little liver and bowels. Cascarets are just candy for children. They taste like candy and no child needs be coaxed to take them even when cross, bilious and sick. Each 10 cent box contains directions and dose for children aged one year old and upwards.

One donation from Kittery has already been given. Food is being brought from Portsmouth and given to families who are perhaps all ill and unable to do for themselves, and is gladly received. AMERICAN AND JAPANESE STEAMERS TORPEDOED

Several Hundred Lives Lost From Two Ships and One Ship Shelled by Submarine

(By Associated Press)
An Atlantic Port, Oct. 10.—The American steamship Albatross, a vessel of 5120 tons, has been torpedoed on her way to France and sunk with a heavy loss of lives. Twenty survivors were brought here today on a British freighter to which they had been transferred five days ago. Some were wounded.

The remainder of the 250 men who comprised her crew are supposed to have perished. It is said that the ship was shelled by the submarine before sinking, which accounts for the wounded. Eighteen of the rescued were soldiers, part of a detachment who were in charge of a shipment of horses for the army.

London, Oct. 10.—The Dublin passenger steamship Leinster has been torpedoed and sunk, according to the Exchange Telegraph. The ship was on her regular trip to the Irish sea. Many of the passengers and crew are missing.

A British Port, Oct. 10.—The Japanese steamship Maru of 7935 tons has been torpedoed and sunk 300 miles at sea. The Maru was bound for Japan with 290 passengers and she was sunk Friday morning with a loss of 390 lives including officers and crew.

GERMAN ARMIES IN FULL RETREAT TOWARD BORDER

(By Associated Press)
The men of the once formidable German armies holding the Hindenburg line from north of Cambrai to St. Quentin are faced eastward, defeated and in retreat.

Their backs are the targets for the British, French and American troops who bitterly fought them out of their supposed impregnable defenses and are now driving them through the open country toward the German border, and no where have they faced about or offered to make a stand.

True, the German border is still a long way distant, but the distance is rapidly decreasing under steady advance of the Allies, especially in the past few days.

Le Cateau, the important junction point 12 miles southeast of Cambrai, shows the point of the deepest penetration by the Allies. The British are masters of it. All along the front the British, French and Americans have been pressing forward their infantry, keeping almost always in touch with the retreating enemy while far in advance are the cavalry and while intermingled with the cavalry are the whiplike tanks which lumbering ahead break up the machine gun nests that dare to offer any resistance.

So fast has been the retreat of the enemy that the allied forces are in contact with them. The retreat, which is now over a front of thirty-five miles from south of Douai to the region of St. Quentin, has left in the hands of the Allies valuable lines of communication as well as many important towns and military positions. It has driven a wedge that seriously will force the enemy out of Douai, one of the remaining strong positions. The British are standing around that city and 12 miles from Valenciennes, the pivotal point in the enemy's last known line of defense and 10 miles south the city is outflanked at Solesmes.

Meanwhile the French and Americans on that part of the line running from northwest of Rheims to the Meuse river are still advancing in their converging movement with the armies of the west and are gradually forming a great back for the Germans who are within the circle.

The Americans on the east side of the Meuse river are advancing up the bank while on the west side in conjunction with the French they have all but broken the Argonne forest as a defense position for the Germans.

To the west the French along the Aisne valley are making further progress, although the Germans are offering stubborn opposition with machine guns, knowing full well the value of the position and seeking to impede the advance of the Allies until the Germans to the north and south can seek safety.

In Macedonia and Palestine the Allies are pressing the enemy at all points. Albania is fast being cleared of the Austrians, while Serbia is rapidly being reclaimed and the Serbian army is now well on to Nish.

At last accounts Gen. Allenby's forces were still driving the Ottoman forces north. So lightning like been the advance of the Allies on the various fronts that only military experts equipped with military maps can keep track of the movement of the armies, from the North Sea to Verdun and in Macedonia and Palestine.

The French, Americans and British in three weeks have taken five important cities which have been in the hands of the Germans for four years: Dixmude, Arras, Lens, Cambrai and St. Quentin, while Lille, Douai and Valenciennes are all but captured.

Paris, Oct. 10.—A quarter of a million Germans are now in full retreat between Cambrai and St. Quentin with the allies hot at their heels according to the battlefront report that came in during the night. At some points the advance has exceeded 15 miles in the last two days. This forward movement of the allies is regarded as the first step in the great general retreat of the Germans, which it seems is now inevitable.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.

EPIDEMIC HAS REACHED PEAK

(By Associated Press)
Boston, Oct. 10.—The reports from the State Board of Health indicated that the epidemic of Spanish influenza has reached its peak and today showed a decrease in the number of new cases and deaths.

For the first time we have reached a point where we can see sunshine, although by no means out of the woods, was the statement of Chairman Endicott of the Emergency Health Board. The condition in Boston is very much improved.

During the 24 hours up to noon there were 7,000 new cases reported and 270 deaths and in Boston proper there were 124 deaths, the smallest for the past sixteen days.

PRESIDENT URGES OVER- SUBSCRIPTION

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 10.—Over subscription of the fourth Liberty Loan for $5,000,000,000 was declared by the President to be a matter of international importance. Recent events have enhanced rather than lessened the importance of the fourth loan.

The last thing that could happen now is that the loan be over-subscribed. There are now only about two billions taken and to reach the minimum of six billions at least a half a billion a day is necessary. The total figures were $2,934,037,050, or thirty-five per cent of the total.

Boston, Oct. 10.—The Liberty Loan for New England has fallen down and the committee hopes to make Saturday, Columbus Day, a great day in the effort to make up the average necessary to carry the loan over. Today's receipts were only $16,110,000 only half of the daily average that is necessary.

Basel, Switzerland, Oct. 10.—Only military reasons could compel us to accept President Wilson's conditions," says the Cologne Gazette in commenting on the American reply to the German peace offer. It is possible Germany may require counter guarantees, for example, the evacuation of the colonies occupied by the allies.

DOVER

Dover, Oct. 11.—While the physicians have a number of serious cases of influenza and pneumonia upon their hands at this time they are unanimously of the opinion that the epidemic is on the wane in Dover. The number of deaths took a big drop during the past 24 hours and with continued cold and fair weather doubtless conditions will steadily improve.

Dr. Verhees, the Burlington, Vt., doctor, who came here to help the local physicians has been summoned to answer many calls. All of the physicians are working hard and one has been obliged to refuse to take any more patients.

The health board stated this morning that the "hot" on all public gathering places was being observed everywhere in the city with "few exceptions. They said a few members of one club persist in violating the orders of the board in spite of the order posted on the door of the organization's rooms. The board further stated this forenoon that unless this club closes up absolutely with 24 hours its doors will be sealed.

County Commissioner Scruton had his attention called to the serious illness of John Court, several members of his family on Sunset street. The commissioner had Mr. and Mrs. Court and two children removed to the Wentworth hospital for treatment. The work of putting the home in proper condition is being conducted by Overseer of the Poor Sidney E. Taylor. There were five children of this family left at the home after the others were removed, the oldest being 14 years old. The officials are doing their best to care for the children.

There was a sensational runaway on Second street Thursday morning. C. Thompson was driving his milk wagon along the street when the horse suddenly became frightened at a passing automobile and started to run away. Both shafts were broken and the horse cleared itself from the wagon and ran down Central avenue. Mr. Thompson and a lady who was riding with him were thrown out when the wagon capsized and they both sustained injuries which necessitated the services of a physician.

Officer William S. Scanlon is seriously ill at his home on Portland street threatened with pneumonia.

"Protecting" the National Anthem.

There was an incident in New York a few days ago which, considered by itself, might perhaps be considered trivial or ludicrous, but which, nevertheless, involved a principle that is worthy of attention.

The incident was the stopping by a policeman of the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner" on a hurdy-gurdy. The street musician had taken his stand in a crowded thoroughfare and was giving a hurdy-gurdy concert to a more or less interested assemblage, the selections being of the kind usually played on these instruments. Finally came the Marseillaise, which appeared to be fully appreciated, crude as was the music, and this was followed by "The Star Spangled Banner." When the first notes of the national anthem were heard the men in the crowd uncovered their heads and a number of soldiers that emerged from a neighboring restaurant immediately stood at attention.

Thus was everything moving smoothly when a big policeman stepped up to the proprietor of the music box and ordered him to stop it at once. The man was amazed. "Why, that is The Star Spangled Banner," he said; but the order was repeated and the music was stopped. Some of the crowd thought it an impertinence on the part of the officer, some thought it was a good joke, and the incident was closed.

Later a citizen wrote a communication to one of the New York papers commending the act of the officer, taking the ground that the dignity of the national anthem suffers when played on such an instrument as the hurdy-gurdy.

But is this so? To most Americans—to their credit be it said—The Star Spangled Banner is always welcome, no matter how humble the instrument on which it may be played or how faulty the voice by which it may be sung. The spirit of the anthem is always there, and people who have the spirit of patriotism accept the rendition without criticism.

The wisdom of suppressing the playing of The Star Spangled Banner, even on so humble an instrument as the hurdy-gurdy, is open to question. The people have been taught to revere the immortal anthem, and men have been sent to jail for failure to remove their hats while it was being played. To attempt to draw a line and decide on what instruments it shall or shall not be played, would be risky business. Aristocracy in a country like the United States is bad enough at the best and should never be allowed to lay its hand on the playing or singing of The Star Spangled Banner, regardless of the quality of the playing or singing.

Love for The Star Spangled Banner and what it stands for will not be enhanced by any such snobbishness as was exemplified on this occasion. The anthem belongs to the people, the poor as well as the rich, and its rendition, even in the most unpretentious manner, should be encouraged under all circumstances. In this land of freedom it will not do to have it understood that it makes a difference who plays or sings the selection that is sweeter to the American ear than any other in the world.

If not sidetracked by the grippe epidemic the annual convention of the New Hampshire State Teachers' Association at Concord on the 18th of this month will be an event of wide interest in the educational circles of the state. An excellent program has been arranged and able speakers will be heard. It is to be hoped that by that time public health conditions will be such as to give the convention a clear field.

The eyes of the labor world, and the rest of the world, too, are on the ship workers at this time of money raising for war purposes. Surely these men are in a position to meet the call generously, and without doubt they will.

The men at the Atlantic Corporation did well in burying the Kaiser the other day, but if the operation had been literal instead of figurative could they not be held liable for polluting the high seas?

The soldiers in the home camps are to be enabled to vote at the coming election, and this is all right. But just why should they be denied the political literature that is so free to others?

The Red Cross diet kitchen is doing a most excellent work and the women who are conducting it are deserving of great credit and all the assistance that can be rendered.

The hoisting of the price of coal 50 cents a ton just as winter is about to set in will create some heat, but this will hardly be of a kind that will save fuel.

The price of cider is unprecedentedly high. Is this one of the first fruits of prohibition?

NAVY YARD NEWS

Sent Over Guard.

A guard from one of the ships at the navy yard was sent ashore by the commanding officer on Thursday and will patrol the city until the ship leaves port.

More Than Over the Top

The Charlestown Navy Yard civilian employees and enlisted personnel have subscribed $696,750 to the Fourth Liberty Loan. The quota for the yard was $600,000. The campaign will go on, however, in an attempt to over-subscribe as much as possible before Oct. 15.

Close Up Recruiting Stations

Marine Corps recruiting stations in Portland, Providence and Worcester are soon to be closed, and the Boston station at 22 Tremont row will be the New England station, with Captain B. J. Doherty in charge. Men from the various stations will be released for active duty. In Boston but six of the staff of 18 men will be retained. Three "female reservists" will assist in the clerical work.

40 Men and 38 Women

The call for additional help at the yard made by the Industrial Department today included 35 female operators, 20 painters, 7 general helpers, 5 machinists, 1 driller, 2 machine operators, 1 moulder, 1 blancher, polisher and plater, 1 teamster, 1 rigger.

Needs 1000 Men

One thousand more men can find employment at the yard and who no doubt would seek the opportunity to work here providing the housing situation was better. The Industrial Department needs 800 general helpers and 200 mechanics mostly machinists, sheet metal workers, etc.

First Yeowomen Dead

The heavy hand of death today took from life the first yeowoman from the ranks at the Portsmouth navy yard in the passing of Mrs. Anne Fraser Norton, who died early this morning at the home of Fred Thompson on Orchard street after a short illness of influenza. Mrs. Norton was a native of Derry and enrolled as a yeowoman at the navy yard on Aug. 14 following the enlistment of her husband who is now at the officers training school at Camp Zachary Taylor, Kentucky. She was assigned to the military department as clerk and stenographer in the Commandants office and was well liked by her associates in the service as well as the civilian force on duty there. Her funeral will be held at the home of her brother in Manchester where she formerly resided.

Going Some on the Loan.

The dispensary once again heads the Liberty Loan subscription in the military composed of the Southern, poison, marine barracks and dispensary. The good work of the dispensary will be seen in the fact that only 13 are attached to that institution. The allotment calls for $25,000 and $45,000 or more has been collected in ready cash. The record shows 102 per cent subscribing, a record which this branch of the department has reason to be proud of, with only 13 people to hand out their money.

Mrs. Jean MacCormick of Framingham has been passing the week at the yard as the guest of her son, Lieut. Austin MacCormick, executive officer of the Naval Prison.

Sent to Insane Hospital.

James Evans of New York, a fireman who made several escapes from the naval prison and who has been under observation for some time by the yard medical force, has been transferred to the naval insane hospital at Washington.

The Herald finds it quite a job to find space for all the news these days. We are trying to do our bit in boosting the Liberty Loan sales.

TWO MILLION AMERICANS OVER THERE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Oct. 11.—American troops sent overseas have passed the 1,900,000 mark. Gen. March announced today. He coupled his statement with an urgent appeal to the country to support the Fourth Liberty Loan. The present was no time to hang back, he said, for the maximum resources of the nation in men and money must be

"hurled at the Hun" to make victory certain. While the movement of soldiers across the water is continuing the War Department is preparing for 2,000,000 men to follow the first 2,000,000. The Department has asked Congress for $5,000,000 to carry out its program. He added that the financial support of that program must not be withheld by the nation. On March announced that among the American divisions which cleaned the St. Mihiel salient in the fight which prepared the way for the present operations north of Verdun, the 26th, made up of the New England National Guard.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts, or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

DANDRUFF GOES! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments. Try this!

Hair stops coming out and every particle of dandruff disappears.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference, how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully "draw" it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance, an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a small bottle of Knott's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

KITTERY

Kittery, Oct. 11.—In spite of many distressing cases found by the Kittery Red Cross workers and the doctors, there is a change for the better in general conditions, regarding the epidemic.

There was another death on Wednesday as a direct result of the disease, that of Herman Boulter, a well liked young man, who had been sick for more than a week. His case was complicated with other weakness, and although he had the very best of care and attention, died from pneumonia and heart trouble.

As a result of the active organization of the Red Cross, every urgent case has been responded to by the society. A diet kitchen has been organized at the library building, for the convenient distribution of food to those who need particular service during sickness.

The Red Cross has had the use of the antenobles of Judge James H. Locke, Mrs. Myrtle Adams Pettigrew of North Kittery, and of Mr. Carroll, the Kittery baker, in the work of visiting and distribution of food. Clarence M. Prince and the Kittery Grocery Co. have contributed canned goods and prepared foods needed.

Owing to the assistance of the Portsmouth Diet Kitchen, a donation of $25 was made to the society for this purpose. Clarence Woodward and Rufus Adams of Kittery contributed money voluntarily, and one amount was received from Elliot. These sums were given without solicitation.

Epidemic Shows Decrease of New Cases and Deaths Increased Calls on the Red Cross Diet Kitchen

There was a decrease in the number of deaths and new cases from the Spanish influenza in this city proper on Thursday and for the first time since it started the Public Health Service officials were confident that it was nearing control. They report that there were less new cases reported in this city, although the condition was far from being safe.

There were but two deaths in the twenty-four hours to midnight, one in the city and another in Kittery, and no deaths at the Emergency hospital or at the naval hospital.

There were four new cases admitted to the Emergency hospital and one discharged, but there are several who are rapidly nearing the convalescent stage and will shortly leave the hospital for their homes.

At least two of the physicians attached to the Public Health Service will be sent to new fields, leaving today and others will follow as the condition clears up. The district nurse with the Red Cross nurse have been doing great work and they, between them, on Thursday visited over fifty houses and gave advice and assistance. The Red Cross diet kitchen had the largest day of the entire epidemic, serving eighty-four families, some with as many as six and seven all in, and in addition the Emergency hospital at Atlantic Heights and the Elks' Home. This was an increase of twenty families over Wednesday and it taxed the capacity of the kitchen organization under Miss Dorothy Emerson. There were the same number of generous donations being made of home cooked broths, etc., and the special need for the kitchen today is bread, rolls and oranges. When it is considered that on an average twenty-six quarts of orange juice is used a day it can be seen how many oranges are needed. There is also a need of sherry and other light wines for jellies. These, of course, cannot be purchased and therefore badly needed, the physicians asking for wine jellies in a great many cases.

The schools will be closed for at least another week and the churches and the theatres and other public places, until Oct. 22 at least. It is thought likely that the closing order on the soda fountains and the beer saloons will be lifted upon Saturday, if the condition continues to improve. The Board of Health, however, like that of Boston, are of the opinion that to open the schools or allow the theatres and other places to open too early, with the great amount of illness that still prevails about the city would be to invite a recurrence of the epidemic, which for the time seems well on the road to being checked.

TREASURY CONDEMNS W. S. S. PREMIUMS

Washington, Oct. 11.—The practice by some merchants of giving war savings stamps as premiums with purchases is strongly condemned by the Treasury.

"The war savings movement was created to help the people of the United States win the war," said a Treasury official in a statement today. "When a retail dealer gives away a war savings stamp, he does so that he can sell a man something the man does not need. The Government gets 25 cents from the dealer, and the dealer gets $5 or $10 from the customer for the articles the customer ought not to have bought, and which the war industries board and the War Department cannot spare the facilities and labor to manufacture. Thus the transaction goes round the circle, and precisely defeats the war savings movement."

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and mussy mixture at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair, after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, prevention or mitigation of disease.

The Board of Registrars will be in session at City Hall on the following days: Tuesday, Oct. 15th, Friday, Oct. 18th, Tuesday, Oct. 22, Friday, Oct. 25th and Wednesday Oct. 30th, from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m., 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. and 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. to prepare check list for the coming election Tuesday, Nov. 5th 1918, also on election morning from 8 a. m. to 12, to grant certificates to those legal voters whose names may have been omitted from check list.

EXETER

Exeter, Oct. 11.—The long delayed and once postponed clambake and ladies' day of the Rockingham County Republican club will be held on Oct. 19 at the Adairworth hotel, Hampton Beach. The committee, composed of President M. Kimball, Worth of Atkinson, John W. A. Green and Robert Scott of Exeter, have planned to have the affair a success, in being candidates' day, and prominent members of the party will be among the afternoon speakers. The dinner, consisting of clams and a genuine shore dinner, will be served at 1 o'clock. The clambake will be prepared by Arthur W. Simpson of Dover Point.

Ellen Tewhill, widow of Timothy Tewhill, died at her home on Garfield street Thursday morning, her death following that of her son, Daniel, by four days. She was 72 years of age, a native of Ireland, born there in 1845. She is survived by a brother and three sisters in Ireland, and three daughters and two sons.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Theresa Knipe, 63 years of age, wife of James C. Knipe, were conducted Thursday morning at St. Michael's church, Mass., being at 9 o'clock by Rev. Michael R. Griffin.

Funeral services of Mrs. Selecta Pingree, 76 years of age, wife of John H. Pingree, were held at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home on Front street. They were conducted by Rev. Edward Green, pastor of the Unitarian church, and the body was taken to Rochester for burial. Mrs. Pingree was a former Rochester resident where her husband was a former sheriff of Strafford county. Her grandson, Corporal Almon Pingree, was the first Exeter boy killed in the present war. Both funerals were in charge of Undertaker F. L. Jenkins.

"Henry A. Day" of the United States merchant marine returned Thursday after a short furlough. He is now for a limited time stationed on the United States ship Bradford at Brooklyn, N. Y. On his return trip from Boston to New York he took a fast steamship via Cape Cod canal. His trip to Exeter was mostly by automobile covering the distance by that method from New York to Springfield, Mass. John Desmond of Boston was in municipal court Thursday morning charged with being intoxicated in Hampton Falls from whence he was brought by O. William McDevitt. He stated to Judge Shute that he was employed at Prison Point, Charlestown, Mass., and that he had some money due him. Upon communication it was found that his story was true and he was sent back to Boston on the noon train. He appeared to be confused and was unable to tell an intelligent story for a time, his speech in this state evidently having a bad effect on his memory. He could not tell how he came here or where he was going.

"FORDS"

Now that new Ford Cars are scarce the next best thing to do is to have your present car put in good running order. With a little care and very small expenditures you can keep your car up to date and in good mechanical order. But when you have these things attended to be sure and insist on getting genuine Ford parts. There are many substitutes and imitations and they are all supposed to be just as good but if your car is worth spending any money on it at all, why not use a little care and see that it is repaired right by using genuine Ford parts manufactured by the Ford Motor Co. of Detroit.

We have a large supply of parts in stock ready for immediate use.

LATEST WORD ON SUBJECT.

Epidemic Probably Not Spanish in Origin—Germ Still Unknown—People Should Guard Against "Droplet Infection"—Surgeon General Blue Makes Authoritative Statement.

Washington, D. C.—(Special.)—Although King Alfonso of Spain was one of the victims of the influenza epidemic in 1918 and again this summer, Spanish authorities repudiate any claim to influenza as a "Spanish" disease. If the people of this country do not take care the epidemic will become so widespread throughout the United States that soon we shall hear the disease called "American" influenza.

In response to a request for definite information concerning Spanish influenza, Surgeon General Rupert Blue of the U. S. Public Health Service has authorized the following official interview:

What is Spanish influenza? Is it something new? Does it come from Spain?

"The disease now occurring in this country and called 'Spanish influenza' resembles a very contagious kind of 'cold' accompanied by fever, pains

Coughs and Sneezes Spread Diseases

As Dangerous as Poison Gas Shells

In the head, eyes, ears, back or other parts of the body and a feeling of severe sickness. In most of the cases the symptoms disappear after three or four days, the patient then rapidly recovers. Some of the patients, however, develop pneumonia, inflammation of the ear, or meningitis, and many of these complicated cases die. Whether this so-called 'Spanish' influenza is identical with the epidemics of influenza of earlier years is not yet known.

Epidemics of influenza have visited this country since 1647. It is interesting to know that this first epidemic was brought here from Valencia, Spain. Since that time there have been numerous epidemics of the disease. In 1850 and 1859 an epidemic of influenza, starting somewhere in the Orient, spread first to Russia and thence over practically the entire civilized world. Three years later there was another flare-up of the disease. Both times the epidemic spread widely over the United States.

"Although the present epidemic is called 'Spanish influenza,' there is no reason to believe that it originated in Spain. Some writers who have studied the question believe that the epidemic came from the Orient and they call attention to the fact that the Germans mention the disease as occurring along the eastern front in the summer and fall of 1917."

How can "Spanish influenza" be recognized?

"There is as yet no certain way in which a single case of 'Spanish influenza' can be recognized. On the other hand, recognition is easy where there is a group of cases. In contrast to the outbreaks of ordinary coughs and colds, which usually occur in the cold months, epidemics of influenza may occur at any season of the year. Thus the present epidemic raged most intensely in Europe in May, June and July. Moreover, in the case of ordinary colds, the general symptoms (fever, pain, depression) are by no means as severe or as sudden in their onset as they are in influenza. Finally, ordinary colds do not spread through the community so rapidly or so extensively as does influenza.

"In most cases a person taken sick with influenza feels rather suddenly. He feels weak, has pains in the eyes, ears, head or back, and may be sore all over. Many patients feel dizzy, some vomit. Most of the patients complain of feeling chilly, and with this comes a fever in which the temperature rises to 100 to 104. In most cases the pulse remains relatively slow.

"In appearance one is struck by the fact that the patient looks sick. His eyes and the inner side of his eyelids may be slightly 'bloodshot,' or congested, as the doctors say. There may be running from the nose, or there may be some cough. These signs of a cold may not be marked; nevertheless, the patient looks and feels very sick.

"In addition to the appearance and the symptoms as already described, examination of the patient's blood may aid the physician in recognizing 'Spanish influenza,' for it has been found that in this disease the number of white corpuscles shows little or no increase above the normal. It is possible that the laboratory investigations now being made through the National Research Council and the United States Hygienic Laboratory will furnish a more certain way in which individual cases of this disease can be recognized."

What is the course of the disease? Do people die of it?

"Ordinarily, the fever lasts from three to four days and the patient recovers. But while the proportion of deaths in the present epidemic has generally been low, in some places the outbreak has been severe and deaths have been numerous. When death occurs it is usually the result of a complication."

What causes the disease and how is it spread?

"Bacteriologists who have studied influenza epidemics in the past have found in many of the cases a very small rod-shaped germ called, after its discoverer, Pfeiffer's bacillus. In other cases of apparently the same kind of disease there were found pneumococci, the germs of lobar pneumonia. Still others have been caused by streptococci, and by others germs with long names."

"No matter what particular kind of germ causes the epidemic, it is now believed that influenza is always spread from person to person, the germs being carried with the air along with the very small droplets of mucus, expelled by coughing or sneezing, forceful talking, and the like by one who already has the germs of the disease. They may also be carried about in the air in the form of dust coming from dried mucus, from coughing and sneezing, or from careless people who spit on the floor and on the sidewalk. As in most other catching diseases, a person who has only a mild attack of the disease himself may give a very severe attack to others."

What should be done by those who catch the disease?

"It is very important that every person who becomes sick with influenza should go home at once and go to bed. This will help keep away dangerous complications and will, at the same time, keep the patient from scattering the disease far and wide. It is highly desirable that no one be allowed to sleep in the same room with the patient. In fact, no one but the nurse should be allowed in the room."

"If there is cough and sputum or running of the eyes and nose, care should be taken that all such discharges are collected on bits of gauze or rag or paper napkins and burned. If the patient complains of fever and headache, he should be given water to drink, a cold compress to the forehead and a light sponge. Only such medicine should be given as is prescribed by the doctor. It is foolish to ask the druggist to prescribe and may be dangerous to take the so-called 'safe, sure and harmless' remedies advertised by patent medicine manufacturers."

"If the patient is so situated that he can be attended only by some one who must also look after others in the family, it is advisable that such attendant wear a wrapper, apron or gown over the ordinary house clothes while in the sick room and slip this off when leaving to look after the others."

"Nurses and attendants will do well to guard against breathing in dangerous disease germs by wearing a simple fold of gauze or mask while near the patient."

Will a person who has had influenza before catch the disease again?

"It is well known that an attack of measles or scarlet fever or smallpox usually protects a person against another attack of the same disease. This appears not to be true of 'Spanish influenza.' According to newspaper reports the King of Spain suffered an attack of influenza during the epidemic thirty years ago, and was again stricken during the recent outbreak in Spain."

How can one guard against influenza?

"In guarding against disease of all kinds, it is important that the body be kept strong and able to fight off disease germs. This can be done by having a proper proportion of work, play and rest, by keeping the body well clothed, and by eating sufficient wholesome and properly selected food. In connection with diet, it is well to remember that milk is one of the best all-around foods obtainable for adults as well as children. So far as a disease like influenza is concerned, health authorities everywhere recognize the very close relation between its spread and overcrowded homes. While it is not always possible, especially in times like the present, to avoid such overcrowding, people should consider the health danger and make every effort to reduce the home overcrowding to a minimum. The value of fresh air through open windows cannot be overestimated."

"When crowding is unavoidable, as in street cars, care should be taken to keep the face so turned as not to breathe directly the air breathed out by another person."

"It is especially important to beware of the person who coughs or sneezes without covering his mouth and nose. It also follows that one should keep out of crowds and stuffy places as much as possible. Keep homes, offices and workshops well aired, spend some time out of doors each day, walk to work if at all practicable. In short, make every possible effort to breathe as much pure air as possible."

"In all health matters follow the advice of your doctor and obey the regulations of your local and state health officers."

"Cover up each cough and sneeze, 'If you don't you'll spread disease.'"

WILL REPAIR IT

What often appears to be a serious, ruinous crack or break in a cylinder, mating or piece of machinery, is but a simple piece of repair work to our Expert Welders. Our welding work wonders in repairing broken metal parts—parts that would have to be "scrapped" before the process was initiated. Remember, our welding generally makes the broken part stronger than it ever was. Inquiries invited.

TRACKLESS TROLLEY OFFICE IS IN BOSTON

Promoters Show Up too Late to Be Heard on This Petition.

The trackless trolley petition presented to the City Council on Wednesday, concerns a project of the New Hampshire Highway Service Company with headquarters at 73 Tremont street, Boston. William E. Thomas is the president and the secretary of the company is Artemas B. Upham. The promoters or representatives of the company who failed to show up at the council meeting on Wednesday evening, when a franchise was asked for in this city, were here on Thursday and much relieved because they were not notified of the meeting which they intended to address regarding to the company's petition.

Late "stoppers" at the bench are enjoying the excellent weather.

Uncle Sam's Liberty Chest Needs Filling Again

We have the cash to fill it as many times as he lifts the lid. There are only two horns to this dilemma—you are either a patriot or a traitor. The men on the firing line and on the battlefields have turned from business, home, Mother, wife, children, and they stand ready to give their lives and shield with their bodies us who remain at home. We are unworthy to be thus protected, if we do not do our utmost to sustain them. Life is not worth living unless there is something to live for and that is why we cannot and must not lose.

Our boys have gone over to clean up that job and it is simply up to us to supply them with whatever they need. It takes money to keep riveters riveting—the sawyers sawing—the machine guns spitting bullets. There is nothing too good for our brave defenders.

We are in this scrap to the last dollar, the last grain of wheat, the last day and we will never stop until Germany dips her blood-stained flag to the Stars and Stripes. It's a waste of a job we have tackled, but we can't whine. Don't knock. You can't saw wood with a hammer. Don't turn the hose on the fire; add fuel.

THE HERALD HEARS

That police officers Mulholland and Anderson are on a vacation.

That it looks like another churchless and guestless Sunday.

That a representative of the "Trackless Trolley" project was in this city on Thursday and called at the city hall.

That he was much put out because he was not notified of the special meeting of the city council held on Wednesday night when the trolley petition was laid on the table.

That city officials say they had no address of the officials or the promoters and could not notify them.

That the supervisors of checklists will make several changes for the coming election on account of voters changing their place of residence.

That now is the time to see that your name is in the proper place on the list.

That the new motor, driven horse wagon of the fire department may be put in service next week.

That the one man electric car is with us and more to come later.

That the action of the city council on the matter of a liquor agency has brought out much comment one way and another.

Workman Caught Between Coal Bucket and Ship's Bulkhead.

Leo Bachczuk, one of the workmen at the docks of the Consolidation Coal Company, sustained a broken right leg on Thursday while engaged in discharging a cargo of coal in the steamer Cleona. The accident occurred when Bachczuk was caught between one of the coal buckets and the bulkhead, which was being pushed along the bottom by other workmen. He was removed to the local hospital for treatment. He had been employed at the dock but a few days.

GO TO WASHINGTON FOR INSTRUCTIONS

THE "FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN"

Here's to the Kaiser,
The blood thirsty demon,
For killing our brave
And trustworthy seamen.

And here's to give courage,
To our boys in the trenches,
We'll give to them all
What we earn on our benches.

And to kill the Germans,
With Wilson's consent,
I'll give to this country my every cent
And never be sorry for what I lent.

And to take out the byones
From every limb of the Kaiser,
If it's considered necessary
We'll take from the miser.

Now we'll put on a few finishing touches,
To protect our boys who are on crutches,
And to show the Germans we love our home,
We'll all donate to the "Fourth Liberty Loan."
